

The Rebels of Gaia/Guardians of Dreams/The Magic Fighters- the cannon groups of magic fighters are stuck on a version of Gaia where magic is slowly being drained. The huge group goes through 6 dungeons to fight 6 reverse magic bosses, where it turns out the whole thing was an elaborate dream.. Or so they thought it was.

This is a persona Q styled crossover, with a lot of ups and downs with long lasting friendships being made, but once they all say their goodbyes their memories were erased seemingly but semi-remember the experiences they had together.
