

However with the three defenders of Crystal fighting something negative happens out of their control.

Because of Magic Monsters showing up in the small town and the visible damage happening overnight people began complaining that something or someone was doing this.

The small town of Diamond lake Florida became known as "the town with the unexplained damage, that could be caused by juvenile delinquents"

However Cole Sylvester and Willson knew that they had to move quicker to prevent these monsters from causing damage to the small town.