

Another large monster appears and the team yet again runs out to go deal with the problem.

The fight was actually hard to deal with at some points.

And if it wasn't until Joseph and Leo performing a powerful combo hit they would have lost then and there .

And then the team just passed out out of exhaustion when they got back to cole's place.

Once they had all woken up they got some pizza before going their own ways for the night as it was so stressful to deal with.

Cole himself had a nightmare of the timeline where he had lost and woke up in a cold sweat during the middle of the night.
