

Slyvester and Daniel are known to be friendly with each other but are friend-enemies in a few ways however.

The two had a blowout argument off screen and weren't on speaking terms with each other.

However the two both did not know that this would later on bite them both in the but especially Sylvester later on.

How is this going to affect them? You're gonna have to wait until it happens.