

So in the background two more people are recruited during a check up when exploring the Crystal world.

Makoto- Wears a Dark Red Jumpsuit that resembles more of a kimono with a fan to fight with and all, and his gemstone is fire shaped and uses the fire element to fight with.

Daniel- Wears a basic yellow jumpsuit with white gloves, and an electric yellow gemstone on his chest, he does not wear any other special modification to his outfit but uses a special electric bow to shoot lightning bolts with.

Unlike the trend of finding new team members during major fights, Daniel and Makoto were just found and required by the team unaware that Cole had no idea what had happened between Daniel and Sylvester and the two had acted cordial around each other, but sylvester was seething in anger.
