

Tensions were running high as people within the group began to bicker among each other.

And it wasn't until Cole then used his powers to silence everyone for a moment.

"CALM THE HELL DOWN!"

"We are the only ones that can fix this Crystal magic problem, so if any of you all want to get physical, be my guest!"

Everyone was in stunned silence before realizing that these guys they were friends with might be their life long friends and Cole was the one to really bring them all together.

"Now I would advise everyone to calm down and maybe just maybe we can fix this mess we just so happened to find ourselves in.
