

George Winter and Edward wake up in a dreamy grassy like meadow in the middle of nowhere seemingly.

The three of them get up off the ground to see shadow-like clones of themselves.

Almost instantly they were attacked by their shadow selves and it was then learned more about Edward and Winter.

Winter Valstorm- is the boxer prodigy polar bear, he is a 6'3 Skinny but Buff Polar bear with a black eye patch over his left eye, and has other scars over his body as well, he has brown hair that's covering his left eye. He is the hot headed and competitive type but is actually a softie under his tough exterior who cares for others, but not very smart academic wise.

His past is that he Lost his parents in a car wreck that left his left eye scratched and is living with his little sister Michele in their uncle and aunt's house with their other first cousins. Grew up fending for himself while protecting himself and his little sister.

As for Edward he is a 6'4 Normal Colored Gorilla with green eyes with long brown braids going down his back with clips in his hair, Has a Very Buff body type. He is a Quiet but Imposing type that is rather stoic, He is Incredibly smart and is a loner by choice and fairly extroverted his intelligence is rivaled by one person: George. For his past he is From the Washington family of engineers and being the youngest of two brothers, he is also trying to become an engineer.

It wasn't until they confronted their negative thoughts they awakened to their powers they also gained new appearances as well.

George was wearing a yellow suit with a white cape, with a white flower on the suit with an electric aura and using a sword to fight.

Winter wears black shorts with black boxing gloves with black wrestler boots with ice white highlights to it and uses his boxing skills to fight with an ice white aura attached to him.

Lastly Edward wears an orange tank top with black sweatpants and orange sports sandals with his hair tied up and uses orange barbells to fight with with the strength aura tied to him