

In the Dream fighter's daily life George had become friends with two girls.

Katherine Adams- An unpopular chubby fox girl, she comes from a poor background and develops a crush on George but is unsure how to act on it.

Rachel Rowan- The Most popular girl and prettiest girl in school in the same grade as George, she is a marble fox with a very beautiful figure. She does have a crush on George but like her unexpected rival is unsure how to act on it.

The two girls were growing closer to their unexpected crush and had no idea that they knew the unpopular or popular girl was their rival.

On the topic of other characters in daily life there were other minor characters.

Principal Quentin Barnett The principal of the school is a very calm and stoic middle aged Fox, and happens to be George's Uncle.

Tracey Barnett The daughter of the Principle, and happens to be George's first cousin she is in the same grade as him and one of the most unbearable and snobby people.

Gary Barnett The Son of the principle who is a 10th grader and is also very snobby and bratty like his older sister, and a cousin of George.

and Rachel's younger brother Ryan The student council president of Belleview high he is also related to another student council president who lives in Montana but his name won't be mentioned.
