

Brian had woken up in his dream to see his roommates, confused about what was happening next, but the kings of Gaia, the main core nine wolves from the first season had shown up to talk to them about something.

Apparently they were talking about who their successors were going to be for their magic and had chosen them to be the leaders of the next generation of Gaians to use magic.

- Cedric was Chosen by King Zephyr for his element.
- Milo was Chosen by King Victor for his element.
- Finn was Chosen by King Storm for his element.
- Jerney was Chosen by king Magma for his element.
- Feddie was Chosen by king Bohdi for his element.
- Zack was chosen by King colton for his element.
- Felix was chosen by king Akira for his element (and his slight-handicapness)
- Last but Not least brian was chosen by King Artemis Moonstone, for his element and to be the leader of the team.

"THERE IS NO WAY I'M LEADING THE TEAM!!!"

King Artemis was blankly staring at him before putting his hand on Brian's shoulder as he calmed down a bit.

"Well I feel that you would be the best choice, You know what i have been through with the others but you don't have to accept this offer I could always find someone else."

As Artemis had turned around Brian had a future flash of sorts showing his healed eye and using magic to impress Alexandria.

"Wait-"

Artemis had turned around ears perked up in interest.

"I'll... Lead the team but had no idea what that flash of memories in my head was"

The royal wolves had all looked at Akira as he was innocently whistling.

"What? i could not help it and you guys know that" the wolves had chuckled to themselves as Artemis turned to Brian.

"Meet us at moonstone castle in 24 hours we will explain more"
