

The guardians began to become adjusted to their own powers, adding their own personal twists to it, and had also started to develop their own weapons.

Brian's Weapons of Choice were Antler-Swords, as he showed that he could take them off and enchant them with his magic.

Aaron's weapons were Two Twin Katanas like with Brian could use with one hand or dual wielding a sword.

Felix's nature sort of prevented him from developing a weapon, but uad developed powerful psychic magic rivaling Akira's a bit to sort of watch from a distance.

Zackery had formed two gem-like gauntlets that had enchanted them to mimic Colton's hardening powers from back in the day.

Freddie being the master of ice created Ice lances but holds them the same way as Bodhi hold's his swords.

Jermey had developed a fire bow as he liked to silently attack from a distance.

Finn created a water whip that has a powerful lash.

Milo had used his bear fists enchanted with his own magic to attack with.

Cedric, sort of taking a page from Prince Solaris's book , had formed Electrix Axes he could throw with precision and aim from on the ground and mid-air flying.
