

A very long day after hard battle after battle Darius and Brian were the remaining two participants left and either one of them could be announced the new beast fighting champion.

Then after Brian had defeated Darius yet again he was the last man... er Moose standing before King Artemis.

"I can't believe you made it this far bro!" Mathew, his oldest brother, had said putting an arm around him.

After being healed yet again Brian had taken the turf yet again.

The dramatic final battle between grass users ,was a nail biter but Brian had surprisingly had pulled a comeback and Brian was the last person standing and he was awarded the new beast fighting champion.

Everyone was proud of Brian including Artemis and the elmwood brothers, they all had felt that they did their parents proud in a way.

At the ceremony Brian was formally awarded the title of "Beast Fighting Champion" by Artemis, essentially the acting former beast fighting champion. He also gave him a grass cape and a golden crown that had jewels of all the kingdoms across the world.
