

The Story of the Guardians of Time begins some time ago. One Year ago Steven Charon, A Gray unicorn prince from the Willow Wood kingdom, finds a hidden chamber hidden within the castle that holds a time machine.

This Machine has the ability to go back in time and enter a special dimension that allows you to see famous historical time periods.

Steven after getting the machine up and working enters it, but was never seen again but all this happened a year ago.

However one year later on September 1st 2020 his 19 year old twin Brother Lucas is semi officially given the role of heir to the kingdom on Gloria which is a sister planet to Gaia. He could have ascended to the throne when his father steps down, but wants to attend college first with some of his old friends before taking the throne.

Lucas while one year into school, was getting a regular college education while also being trained as the next king of his kingdom
