

Like with every growing group, there would be growing pains among the team.

so when things were getting tense Lucas had then silenced the fighting.

"We are the Guardians of time and are trying to investigate the realm of time and hopefully track down my brother."

Lucas then unleashed his powers.

"If anyone is feeling that froggy then jump"

it was so silent you could hear a pin drop before everyone calmed the hell down before Lucas unleashed more of his powers.