

The next labyrinth was a water themed one, and was the sixth labyrinth so far. It was also based on the theories of deep oceans.

Theo did his thing and scanned the labyrinth, and detected one stone and it ran about 13 floors deep.

The team always did their thing, took down the boss and Lucas had obtained the 10th stone from the sea serpent boss.

"This is the 10th one... if it's like a clock... there should be two more..."

"and then... and only then.. we may have a clue on the mysteries of this realm"
