

Lucas had another nightmare about his brother but this time it was... way more intense.

He saw something a lot more graphic in the way of seeing his brother parish in front of him.

Lucas had woken up screaming.

"Lucas..? What was that, are you okay in there?"

"Y-yeah I'm f-fine just-saw a bug..."

"A magic prince scared of a bug? That's rich"

Lucas then tried to catch his breath as he felt like he was having a panic attack.

"F-fuck... I hate this... so much..."

He then took a bath to relax some and then headed back to bed and fell asleep again.
