

For the past few days Solaris has gotten a lot of fan mail from just one person. A lot of x-rated stuff like pictures and fanfiction dedicated between this person and solaris.

Solaris was feeling rather skitsh and had a guard escort anywhere he was out in public because he was legit scared that this person was going to violate him.

It wasn't until a family outing where this person a chubby human (rare on gaia) had approached him and started saying all these creepy and x-rated things to him before the moonstone sisters shut them down and she was arrested for sexually harassing a monarch.

Solaris, like any other person, was traumatized by this and second guessed himself over fame over what happened.
