

Dakota is adjusting to life with a rich boyfriend Justin and at the beginning the two were polar opposites of each other on where they are from but alike in other ways. He is living life to the fullest with his boyfriend by his side while also navigating life as a native wolf prince on modern gaia outside of his home.

Dakota is also helping out his folks and siblings when he has the chance to when he is not busy, and also helping out his in-laws as they see him as another son just like Justin.
