

My Name... Demetrius Dark, I come from old money in a way.

My Goal is to graduate high school but life has other plans...

We were dragged into some sort of magic based conflict within the dream world under the king of nightmares to get back at the people who wronged him.

But I'm not sure but I have a feeling that this whole thing is wrong and my forced teammates think the same as well.

I got moved into a dorm with funny enough my forced teammates under the king

Kenta, Markus, Carlos, Martin, Davie, Simon and Levi can back me up on this.

For 6 months or so we had been working with the king before my senior year had started, but as I'm writing this journal to myself this story started... yesterday.
