

The Story of Harry Petrov is darker than it seems, truth be told he has been taking physical and mental abuse from his father for years after his mother died.

Harry took the blunt of abuse to protect his 5 younger brothers and twin sister.

He acted tuff to protect his siblings and himself so people would not think of messing with him or his siblings.

Mr Petrov, the once happy and nice person turned into an alcoholic forever angry person with an office job.

It wasn't until Harry had fainted during class when his home situation had been revealed.

Mr Petrov was arrested, lost custody of his kids and had his home the cramped apartment raided because of a tip he was abusing drugs.

Harry and his siblings were taken to a child protective services in the bigger city and were gone for a week at school.

Thomas and Johnny were saddened over what happened and were shocked by what he had gone through.
