

Like any other school Shadow Hill high school there are different groups of kids or "Cliques" ' of sorts.

Levi Clermont-Benjamins, the leader of the "delinquents" of the high school, is the leader of one of the cliques.

For more info about him he is a 6'2 Fairly buff Dark Green Crocodile with brown eyes, he has a few scars on his face with a very noticeable one on his left eye. He has very long Dreadlocks with golden bands that go down midway down his back that he keeps in a downwards ponytail using hair ties. He wears a brown leather jacket with a silver chain that goes from his belt to his back pocket; he does not wear the jacket in the warmer months.

He appears Intimidating and cold but quiet on the outside, but he is fairly humble, caring and observant, being rather stoic, putting up the tough guy act to protect himself and others.

He is known to be a very tough cookie to crack and it's even more scary to know that he is in the same year as Thomas.

You may be thinking that with him being the leader of the "delinquents" he would be a terrible person but that's the opposite of him.

The Delinquents of the school keep the bullies and jerks in check and are the social outcasts with Levi happening to be the one with the most seniority as the previous leader had graduated.

Levi is also on a friendly basis with Johnny and vice versa as Johnny is bullied for his sexuality a lot and Levi's "clique" makes sure that he is safe at school.
