

Junko Windbrook is the fashionable, pretty and popular girl of the school.

She is a 5'10 Brown wolf with black hair with lush long pigtails and blue eyes. She is known to have manicured fingernails and is known to customize her school uniform depending on what fashion trends they are.

She is also known to be the kind hearted extroverted type, she often uses her family's wealth and good status for good within the school.

Because of how busy her life is in and around school with her modeling and other life things she is often not at school but stays on top of her grades.

It wasn't until by Chance that Junko had bumped into Thomas that he started to develop feelings for her and he hadn't felt this way about anyone before.

Junko and Thomas did become fast friends before eventually exchanging numbers and she had to leave school again for life reasons but the two would text each other normally like friends.

One thing to also note: Miss Windbrook is also in the same grade as Thomas and is a 16 year old just like him.
