

Three new characters are about to be introduced-

Christopher Jefferson, a 16 year old white hazeled eyed rabbit with a skinny but toned build standing at 5'10 and missing his left pointer finger.

Vincent Charleston, a 15 year old 5'10 skinny but toned cheetah with green eyes.

and Lastly

Skyler Indigo is a normal colored black panther standing at 5'6 with a blue eye and a hazel eye with normal length dark brown hair, he also has a very skinny build and is often confused for being feminine for his androgynist appearance.

Christopher is the hot headed and competitive type with a brave and confident side to him but is actually very introverted and acts a certain way to protect himself from being bullied, Vincent is the level headed and passive type but has a fierce competitive side and keeps the harmony in his groups of friends, he is also fairly laid back.

Christopher and Vincent are rivals and have known each other since childhood and are very close to each other.

Skyler is the stoic and reserved type, being extremely intelligent, but can act a bit childish for his hobbies and gets scared rather easily.

Skyler was watching the soccer team practice with Christopher and Vincent on the field doing their thing.

Then out of the blue magic shadow monsters appeared out of nowhere and started attacking.

The Magic hour had yet again appeared during the day and it was resulting in magic trouble.

The Magic Fighters had teleported in to deal with the problem.

Suddenly this happened-

Christopher- He wears a gold colored wrestler mask, with a gold color tank top with black shorts with gold leggings under his shorts with gold colored cleats.

-He uses electric leg kicks as his main weapon, as he shares the same element as Vincent.

-His magic form is an electric powered jet.

Skyler- He wears a white trench coat jacket with black slacks with white shoes with magenta colored gloves with the same hat he always wears.

-He uses the psychic element to fight, and uses a crossbow as his main weapon.

-His magic form is a justice balance.

Vincent-Wears an orange yellow and white soccer player outfit with orange cleats and all.

-He creates electro balls to fight with -His magic form is an electric factory and shares the same electricity power as chris.

Skyler Christopher and Vincent had known what to do next, and started to fight alongside the magic fighters and ended up helping win the conflict.

"Hey Thomas, look at more magic users!" Wyatt had pointed out.

Thomas had explained the short story of what was happening, and with some convincing the three had joined the group.