

Thomas and the team had wanted to take a short break from magic fighting, but there are rumors of some sort of magic person taking down hordes of monsters during the magic hour.

The Description of this person is someone wearing a black leather jacket, brown jeans with dark orange boots and gloves, using blunt objects to fight with.

-He is seen doing great displays of strength, while using a magic motorcycle to drive (though it could be hinted that it's a magic form).

Thomas and the others begin to speculate who this mysterious magic vigilante is, though they don't know that it is Levi but it's hinted and rumored that it is actually Levi.

Throughout the team's break they try to gather information on Levi even with Wyatt's help but even he could not sense anything from him or detect any traces of magic.

When the others gave up Skyler had began to do his own investigation from a distance and once he found out who it is Levi or not he would tell Thomas or Harry right away.
