

Owen Greyson, better Known as the Captain of the boxing club is a 6'5 Muscle gutted wolf with dark brown fur with blue eyes and a lighter colored chest/stomach with black hair in a buzzcut. He is known for wearing orange braces on his wrists as he does a lot of boxing.

He is known to be very Hyper and upbeat, and a generally chill older brother type but is not the smartest academically, and can be a bit clueless.

For another detail is that he is gay but never acts like it or seems like it and is very much in the closet, He does have a crush on Johnny but has struggled for years on how to communicate that to his nextdoor neighbor of 16 years.

Owen and Johnny have a good friendship even though Owen wants it to be something more than just close friends.
