

Thomas one weekend had invited the current team members to his uncle's house better known in Montgomery City Lionheart Manor, the rich house at the end of one of the roads where most of the bigger houses are.

Thomas's uncle and aunt had left town for the weekend and said it was okay for them to stay the whole weekend beginning on Friday evening.

The Team with the adoptive Lionhearts had enjoyed the manor, with the pool, the basketball court and the spa area in the basement r & r area.

Once this was over the team had grown closer to each other, and were a step closer on becoming best friends.