

The fully united team had discovered that yet again there was another block better known as the Haunted house block, where the pasts of the team members were properly known.

-Preston is the heir to the Crimson Technology company, is one of the richest kids in school, and is an only child.

-Lucas is just your normal upperclassmen with a rep as a pervert to the girls, but he lives with his single mother and two younger sisters in an apartment and keeps up a smile for the sake of others but not himself. He was the Captain of the baseball team before he had to step away from it because of family reasons besides the way he presents himself he is well respected among his peers.

-Tommy and his 8 brothers and 6 sisters both younger and older manage the Fairfield farms in the working class town, his eldest brother taking charge of the farm after their parents' unfortunate passing due to a car accident 4 years ago.

-Levi is looking out after his younger 5 brothers with his older sister and disabled mother, he gets into fights and scraps to protect them and others as his late father was a drunk and killed himself drunk driving and took someone else's life. He is the leader of the delinquents, a group of bullied and social outcasts that keep to themselves occasionally intervening in fights.

-Alexander is the only son from his family that runs a flower shop and a small grocery store, he prefers to be alone with his thoughts and rarely speaks however his floral arrangements are a favorite among the girls in town.

-Kyle is your average smart boy with a normal upbringing, he lives in the same town with Preston and Thomas, his father is a famous actor and his mother a famous singer but he took up acting as he wanted to express himself.

-Johnny grew up to be an average nerdy kid hiding the fact that he is gay and developed a crush on Thomas when he met him, he is open about his sexuality and sometimes harassed over that.

-Harry grew up with his twin sister and 5 younger brothers with their fathers' abuse for years after his mother died and acted tough for the sake of his siblings and himself to protect them and lives in the poorest side of the working class town.

-Owen is working hard to become a pro boxer inspired by his late father he is the runt of his 2 brothers and twin older sister, he has a big crush on Johnny and is also gay like him but in the closet about it.

-Thomas is the only child between his parents and grew up a generic prince, but with the throne in question because of recent events, he also struggles with using magic until he jumps into action because of the magic hour.

-Christopher grew up with Vincent as a childhood friend, as they both share the dream of becoming a pro football player, he sees Vince as another brother as he has 3 older sisters at home.

-Vincent grew up with Chris and shares the dream of becoming a soccer player like him, he is an only child and very close with Chris.

-Skyler's greatest goal is to become an ace detective as his family comes from a long line of them, the way he presents himself has people confusing him for a female when he is indeed male.

-Wyatt is the runt of 3 older brothers and two older sisters as they all achieved something physical related. He prefers to lock himself in his room and play video games while also toying with hacking

The Team ended up falling to their own respective nightmares one by one by the hands of The Nightmare ghost.

With this failure it seemed that the adventure was over... in which it was but only for the beginning of their lives.
