

At this point there is a minor time skip; the seniors had graduated, and all the former members of the magic fighters went to accomplish their goals and dreams.

Now for this part of the story the Juniors now Seniors went into their last year of high school happy to know what they went through in high school will be over at some point.

Junko and Thomas later on became a power couple setting a good example for being in a relationship not counting the fact they are teenagers in high school.
