

After some time Dominique had come back to the group obviously a mess, but strong over the fact that yeah he messed up.

Adam, Daryl, Axel, Tucker and Chester were seen at a cafeteria table during lunch one day before Dominique showed up.

"h-hello everyone"

The five look up at Dominique practically giving them a cold stare silently.

"...I know I wasn't the best of people to you or that... other world but.."

Dominique began to break down to their surprise.

"I- apologize for my actions... and wish to join you with this mutual problem we both have."

Adam to everyone's surprise agreed to let them join, as he was really torn up over what happened.

Later on Dominique became a very powerful asset to the team being able to land deadly blows with his water crossbow to any monsters they faced.
