

So after some time the team began backtracking at the past dungeons they have been to around town.

It wasn't until they ran into Dominique again at the 4th dungeon that it was a little bit awkward for both sides.

"I don't think you all would be accepting if I tried to join back again after... what had happened again."

Everyone else looked at each other with Jade being a bit confused not aware of what happened before Scott explained what had happened to him.

Adam was hesitant on letting him back in before Jade had sensed what was wrong and helped the team let Dominique back in.

"Dudes I would have died if he did not step in when I got kidnapped...."

It was then decided that Dominique would be let back into the group again.

Chester even joked that it would be for real this time that he would stay on the team.
