

The story of the shadow tamers is simple, but fairly complex basically the Nightwing family, a rich celebrity family much like the lionheart family. However for years they used their shadow based magic to cause chaos by controlling the rich and influential people so that they can be the mastermind of the chaos.

It wasn't until Nathan the main protagonist, a 17 year old high school student, discovers this secret and wants to set things right.

The story takes place in Soul city California, (which is Los Angeles in the magic timeline). During 2019

Nathan finds other magic users as he finds the seven magic shadow dungeons around his city and his high school, and it's up to him to fix his crooked family name. The story begins on August 1st 2019, and ends around March of 2020.
