

Shade had sensed that the last two shadow castles have not vanished and are tethered down for some reason from disappearing.

So when the tamers of shadow of the first castle they noticed that there were some monsters but not enough to cause any harm to the outside world.

"Careful Y'all I sense two entities and can't tell if they are friend or foe" Shade had said before going away.

Nathan and the others began to explore the 1st dungeon before Nathan Noticed movement and signaled to the others that he was going to attack first.

When He readied his bow to fight, he noticed two people walking around.
