

A few days later from the last boss fight Nathan had sensed another monarch and shadow castle from within the city, when he was alone at his house.

So when he tried to summon Shade he did not appear, and got confused but his powers felt like everything was in check.

However as time went on later on that day, Nathan had detected the shadow castle and who is the "owner" of it.

It was the club of lust owned by The Rich Club Owner Johnny Blight A sleazy pervy rat who has been terrorizing people for ages.

One battle later The next monarch and castle was taken down but Nathan was actually panicking over where Shade was.

"...."

"Come on... he will show up let's get out of here"
