

The Team did some tracking and uncovered the last shadow castle.

The Palace of Greed was owned by Jackson Nightwing, and was a huge palace with many floors and rooms.

"everyone..."

Nathan had got the attention of the others.

"This may be very well the last mission and... if we don't make it out..."

...

"I'm glad you have met everyone... including you Shane"

The team had gone up against the true mastermind Jackson Nightwing, and ended up taking him down.

"It's over, father... stand down"

"but..."

"It's over... me and the others will beat you down as many times as you keep getting up.."

The shadow monarch of Jackson had gone back to his actual body, and his father had a change of heart.
