

This story takes place during June of 2020, where Joel is living life in his kingdom with his best friends by his side, but when the Granite organization shows up to make deals with the kingdoms the people of this homeworld become hypnotized and start working for the granite organization before the warriors see what is happening and free each kingdom from their hypnosis spell and Joel and his team take the planet back.

Mezzanine (pronounced Meza-Nine) is an half industrial planet have nature planet in the same galaxy as Gaia and Gloria, and is responsible for having most of the ships and weapons in the Diamond Galaxy manufactured and is often seen as a planet that's half robotic have nature with some moons and other planets floating around it.

Mezzanine has 8 Continents (though these continents are subcontinents in a way size wise), with a kingdom to rule over each one. Like Gaia they have temples to protect the Jewels of Mezzanine eight diamond gemstones that help power the planet and provide magic stability.

Mezzanine is also known for its gemstone and Jewel production so it's kingdoms are named after Gemstones, in which incidentally that kingdom's Jewel is that stone.

Spessartite a kingdom in an Orange hue and is near the center of the planet, and is like new york city in a way people across the planet live here

Navratna- a kingdom in an White hue and is near the colder, more northern part of the planet and is an icy snow modern wonderland.

Almandine-a kingdom in a Red hue and is a desert area of the south eastern half of the planet, it's part modern but relic.

Celestite-a kingdom in an Yellow hue, and is known to be a big power factory within a large oak tree, it's rather eco friendly there producing power wise.

Chambersite-a kingdom in an Black hue, and is in the Chambersite mine of Mezzanine and this kingdom is responsible for most of the gem production on the planet.

Chrysoprase-a kingdom in a Green hue, and is a modern city on the coast of one of the oceans surrounded by a lush forest, it's also where Joel is from.

Chrysocolla-a kingdom in a Blue hue, it's an Atlantis- like city in one of the oceans that helps preserve the water quality of the planet.

Vivianite-a kingdom in a Purple hue, it's a richer kingdom nestled in between two mountaintops and is the last kingdom on the list.

The royal families of each kingdom share their last names with their own respective kingdoms as their ancestors that founded each one, took the last names from the places that were founded.
