

The next Stop was the Chambersite Kingdom, and Joel noticed that just like in his kingdom, that there was a new building with a Branch of Granate Organisation in it.

It also could have been suspected that it could be the source of the brainwashing in this kingdom.

So the team did their thing and took down the branch of the Granate Organization here and the leader of the branch too.

The Royals here thanked the warriors at their castle before heading off to the next kingdom freeing this one.

It was noticed that this kingdom was known for gem production and when they took down the bad guy's base there were a bunch of gems that they had before some of them took off.
