

The team then began their long raid from the inside of the airship to hopefully try to take out the leader of the mafia.

but the airship was so huge which was kind of fun to explore and also get some much needed payback against some of the bad guys.

They kept traveling through the airship while making notes here and there.