

"I knew the hacker of your group would have realized that the data that was discovered would have helped you infiltrate my airship"

"Now... you all can be witnesses to the new world I am going to create from your home!"

It was then that there was a new hypnotic beam that was charging up about yet again brainwashing the planet.

Mr Granite was laughing before there was an explosion from the left.

"Rule number one..."

The familiar voice was heard.

"Don't steal from my god damn Homeworld!"

Artemis Moonstone with the rest of the heroes of Gaia were there on the left side of the cockpit.

Then there was another explosion on the right.

"And this time stay off my damn planet!"

Lucas Charon with the Rest of the Guardians of time were seen on the right in their time outfits and weapons.

Mr Granite looked like he had seen a ghost along with his brothers as the two princes from Gaia and Gloria proceeded to wipe the floor with them.

Akira and Theodore had freed the warriors of Mezzanine and given them back their weapons and gear.

It was then both Artemis and Lucas had then pinned down the leader.

"Well Joel... we did it... now what?"

"What do you want us to do with him? Lock him away forever?"

"No.."

"WHAT ?!" Everyone was confused.

"We are going to reform them, with the proper punishment.... Included for now... you two take your magic and your ship back"

Lucas and Artemis nodded in agreement.

Many years later Joel and his team were hailed as heroes and Joel later on became the king of his own kingdom similar to Artemis and Lucas of their own home planets and Kingdoms.

(And with that the story of the warriors of Mezzanine come to an end)
