

Victor being a strength wolf naturally would be strong, but as if lately and in his spare time he's becoming a famous wrestler bodybuilder along with power lifting with his natural non magic strength.

When he is a Wrestler he dons a black mask that covers the top of his head with black shorts, knee pads, arm pads and fingerless gloves and is known as Sr Vincent.

Another thing is that he is becoming rather famous for this and is constantly training with his brothers to become stronger and stronger each day in which he is.

Lastly he is getting stronger, as he beat one of his older brothers in an arm wrestling match just for fun and broke the table that they were using.
