

This Gaian Sport has existed as long as Gaia Has had it's kingdoms, and it's a magical battle where it's a 1v1 2v2 or 3v3 all out battle to see who comes out on top in a tournament style format. All Gaians young and old look forward to seeing these battles once the summer comes around as that's the season for them. For many years it's a normal thing for those who visited the Gaian homeworld to participate in an exhibition match against the visitor just for them to get a taste of what A Gaian is like.

The General Rules are-

1. Nothing Below the Belt
2. Using 100% of your controlled power (as Gaian Magic is powerful but Won't lead any lasting damage onto someone, as all Gaian elements do neutral damage to each other)
3. After 5 minutes you may use your Gigantic beast form to finish the match or unless specified by the ref.
4. After 2 minutes at the start of the match you may use your beast form
5. The last person standing wins the match if both participators end up knocked out it will end in a draw.
6. The battle must be done between 5-minutes to 8-Minutes or else the other matches (which are normally 12 to 8) will be delayed
