

March 1st 2020 at 8:am 24 hours after landing on earth-

"So the first night was quiet, the rest of the wolves and I just watched the stars before we went to bed last night as we could see the galaxy where our homeworld is. Even though this place is nothing like home it's still calming and relaxing to be here no forced marriages to think about."

....

"I think i should head downstairs to make some food for us, i had packed a lot of food from home i am feeling pancakes this morning"

Artemis had gotten dressed by putting on his main outfit but had put his hair into a downwards ponytail, put on an apron and walked into the kitchen to start making breakfast.

Soon the other wolves had shown up to eat as they smelled the food... namely Victor using his stomach to smell it from upstairs.

The wolves had sat down and ate for a moment before heading into the bath house to bathe and then shower.

The other wolves had gotten into the hot spring with Bohdi's face blushing as he had a towel covering his chest and stomach, while the others relaxed.

"Dude do you know what personal space is?" Said Zephyr to Storm annoyed "Sorry but your big butt is taking all of it up" Storm said smugly as Zephyr had a pouty look on his face. "....my butt is not that big but yours is bigger than mine!" Zephyr said that smugly as Storm had a bit of a blank look on his face. "Ladies both of you are beautiful now stop arguing before i stop it" Colton cracked his knuckles as both Zephyr and storms ears flopped down and looked away from each other while gulping.

"Hey Arthur !" Victor shouted to Artemis that was next to him as Artemis had an annoyed look on his face "Are we going to explore this area?!". Artemis sighed and calmly looked at Victor before responding "Only if Vincent would say my name right" Artemis had a smirk while Victor just rolled his eyes.

After a few minutes the wolves got out and showered as Kage was drying off. Akira can be seen in the background, his face beat red. "Yo Prince of Light, I can see you are staring at my ass again" said Kage calmy with Akira running out of sight in the background. Bohdi had stepped out of the shower next to Kage and turned to him "did you have to be that blunt?" he said with not a lot of emotion in his voice. "I wasn't trying to come off blunt... it's just i knew that he was there that's all i wasn't trying to be mean".

After getting clean the wolves had stepped out of their temple and saw the town of cypress woods montania a small rich town in the middle of the famous cypress forest. "Now i did the Gaia scan here and that there are Earthlings here but it would be best for us to avoid them" Said Artemis calmly. The wolves had then spread out in different directions to silently map out the town from the trees but found out that the people here are just like on their homeworld. Once the sun was setting the wolves then met back up at the entrance of the temple to tell the information that they found.

"I don't see any volcanoes or lava spots here... i have to find something exciting to do to entertain myself" Said Magma a bit smugly. "Please don't have a repeat of the Opal City fire incident 6 years ago" Said Artemis a bit annoyed. "...okay i won't my parents give me the verbal lashing of a lifetime" Magma said this as his ears flopped down.

"Speaking of flames..."
"HEY!"

"Do you think that we can beast-fight here?I know we have to use our beast triggers to charge up our magic but-" asked Artemis. "I think we can but we just have to do it the old fashioned way" replied Akira.

The wolves had then talked about beast-fighting a sport that uses their magic to fight in an 1v1 match but Artemis went quiet and had a shadow covering his face as he silently walked inside and back to his room from the magic temple door.

"I'm a moonstone... but i can't properly use my powers but everyone else including solaris can use their powers..."

"I think I'm going to go to sleep now to ease some of my troubles about my powers"

A flashback can be seen of Solaris with Artemis's other brother Jupiter summoning their beast giants and using tricks for their powers along with a flashback of their father in his prime doing the same thing.
