

His name is Bodhi Christian Frost his birthday is February 16th 2002

Bodhi grew up pretty average but had a pretty miserable life growing up. He wasn't the smartest in school and was bullied a lot so much he had gotten very bad body image problems. Once after having a tantrum as a 10 year old his father told him to just keep silent about his problems and keep a stoic poker face. Because of this he was hiding his true shy but timid nature but he was also very confident in himself and pretty observant. He had the Colton stoic brand of stoic-ness for many years but generally acted the same throughout his life leading up to his breakdown that nearly froze Cypress woods in a sleepwalker state.

After he was reassured by his best friends he opened up to Magma in which the two became really close almost like brothers.

Bodhi has a few siblings Lumi(24), Cole (24) and his younger sister Gwen (16).
