

You might be a furry if:

- You're reading this.
- You anonymously bring joy to kids and adults alike.
- You have a very active imagination.
- You know what the abbreviations "FA" and "tf" mean.
- You geeked out way too much over Zootopia/Zootropolis.
- Your online profile name has "wolf" somewhere in it. (Guilty as charged.)
- Your Minecraft skin is a fox, wolf, etc.
- You have a special place in your heart that's ready to watch CSI burn in an unquenchable fire for the rest of eternity.
- You reject stereotypes.
- You laugh at the ignorance of haters.
- You like to imagine waking up as something else.
- You think tails are cool.

And if you understand everything this list is referring to—yeah, you're definitely a furry.
