

Julie was driving alone in the forest late one night. She was desperately trying to escape from her abusive husband, and left her cell phone behind for fear he might use it to track her. She saw some strange lights in the sky, and decided to park and get out of her car. Suddenly, she saw an explosion of bright colors and passed out. She awakened in an unfamiliar forest. Neither her car, nor any signs of civilization, was anywhere to be found. She called out for help. It soon became apparent that she was nowhere near home. First, she saw what looked like the sun, about twenty degrees above the horizon. Then, she noticed an orange star in the sky, a few hundred times fainter but still much brighter than a full moon. She also noticed that the air was much thicker - about three times as thick as on earth - and yet she felt lighter, as the gravity was only about 80% as strong as on earth. "WHERE AM I?" She exclaimed in a panic. "HOW DID I GET HERE?"

Julie then heard an unfamiliar voice behind her: "Hello, and welcome to our world." She found his voice stunningly attractive. She turned around and saw a 40 foot long green dragon with horns on his head. His head was over six feet long and about two and a half feet wide. His shoulders and hips were more than five feet wide, his arms were about seven feet long, his legs were nearly 10 feet long and his tail was nearly 20 feet long. When he stood upright, his head was more than 15 feet off of the ground. He was able to dart out his tongue rapidly like a frog, to a distance of about 12 feet past his mouth. He had retractable wings with a maximum wingspan of about 50 feet, and as she soon learned, he could use them to fly as high as a mile off of the ground. Flying was easier in this strange world, where the air is nearly three times as thick as on earth. The dragon's teeth were nine inches long and, to her amazement, fully retractable. She exclaimed, "Oh my God! Are you going to eat me?"

"Only if you want me to," he replied in a seductive voice.

"You have a fucked up sense of humor," Julie said.

"I know," he responded. "But I thought it might lighten your mood. Anyway, you have been chosen. Right now, you are probably shocked, but you will soon learn how lucky you are. I know a lot about you, and I know that you do not want to go back. Your husband is very violent, isn't he?"

"HOW THE FUCK DID YOU KNOW THAT?"

"I know many things. I am a dragon, and if all goes well, you will become a dragon too one day."

“This is really weird. Who are you, where am I, and how did I get here?”

“My name is Dick, which is really awesome, since it is my favorite body part” –

“Could we hold off on the sexual humor? We just met.”

“Sorry. I keep forgetting how humans are about sex. Dragons aren’t like that. We think sex is the most wonderful thing in the world. It is how we came into being. We think it is horrible that humans see it as something to be ashamed of. Maybe some time around us will cure you of this uniquely human sickness. What were your other questions, Julie?”

“WHAT? HOW DO YOU KNOW MY NAME ALREADY?”

“We did some research. I told you that you were chosen. Oh, you wanted to know where here is and how you got here. This is the fourth planet from the star that you call Alpha Centauri A. That is the bright yellow star you see over there. The fainter one is Alpha Centauri B. That’s not what we call them, but for now I will use terms that you will recognize. When it gets dark, I will show you where your sun is. As for how you got here, dragons have ways of controlling time and space. It’s hard to explain how it works, but to show you what I can do, look down right now.”

“I’M TEN FEET OFF OF THE GROUND! HOW DID THAT HAPPEN?”

“That is just one of my powers. I can do all sorts of things. I can breathe fire. I can run so fast that the wind will blow you off of your feet ten yards away. I can cause you to sprout extra limbs. I can heal your wounds from a distance. I can become completely invisible or glow in the dark if I choose. I can make my internal organs or specific parts of my body glow in the dark. I can adopt human form temporarily, while retaining all of these powers. I can even bring you back to life if you should die, even if your whole body is completely destroyed. Oh, and I can also read your mind, though I usually won’t because I respect your privacy.” He then sets her down before belching out a 20 foot long flame.

“HOLY SHIT! YOU’RE EITHER THE SCARIEST BEING I’VE EVER MET, OR YOU’RE GOD HIMSELF!”

“If by God you mean one of the many beings you humans worship, I hate to break this to you, but all earthly religions are false. And if you mean the creator, I am not her. She is as much more powerful than I, as I am than you.”

“You mean God is a woman?”

“She’s not human, but she is female. Think about it. Which sex brings new life into being?”

“You have a point. It’s just that the religion I was brought up with says God is male.”

“Is this the same religion that says that the earth is 6000 years old and that a man made the sun stand still in the sky and you damn well better believe every word or you will face eternal torment? Even your kind ought to be able to come up with better than that.”

“I know. I stopped believing in that stuff long ago, though I was afraid to tell anyone, especially my husband, who you seem to know a lot about.”

“Is he the one who ruined you on sex, because I’m sure I can fix that?”

“My husband is a terrible person. He always puts me down. I don’t understand. He tells me I’m fat and ugly and that no one but him would want to have sex with me, though for all that, he seems to enjoy it.”

“I think you are beautiful. As for being fat, that is another thing your society is just wrong about. Thin and pretty are not synonymous. Real people have curves. Besides, fat people taste better.”

“Now you are joking about eating me again.”

“Sorry. Sometimes I speak without thinking. You’d think after 9000 years I would have gotten over that nasty habit.”

“You are 9000 years old?”

“Dragons have regenerative powers. Some of us live over a million years. Follow me, and you may become one of us. We have ways to turn humans into dragons. You have nothing to lose, and everything to gain. I love you, and I will never hurt you. I might eat you, but I will never hurt you.”

“Eat me without hurting me. That sounds interesting.”

“So, you are finally starting to get comfortable around me. I like where this is going.”

Julie then begins to laugh uncontrollably. Dick laughs also. He retracts his teeth.

“You have retractable teeth? I’ve never seen such a thing.”

“Oh, you will find that my anatomy is unlike any animal you’ve ever met. Not only can I retract my teeth, but I can shut down my digestive system for days at a time. That way, if I accidentally eat you, you won’t die.”

“Or if it isn’t an accident” –

“I guess I did allude to that possibility earlier, didn’t I?”

“It’s really warming up,” Julie says. “I guess you wouldn’t mind if I take off my clothes.”

“Of course I don’t mind. I’m always naked. You should be too.”

“My husband is going to kill me if he finds out, and I mean that quite literally.”

“How would he do that? No human has ever ventured this far from earth without our help. Were you planning on returning home and telling him that you fucked a dragon?”

“WE HAVEN’T FUCKED YET!”

“I thought that was what humans did when they took off their clothes.” Julie took off her clothes as Dick watched closely. She could see him developing an erection. Ordinarily, this would have intimidated her, but something was different this time. She was horny too. She felt bad for being so tempted by someone she had just met, and even more so for the fact that the subject of her affection was not human. Yet, this only increased her arousal. Dick knew what was happening, as if he had a direct window into her mind. “You said, ‘we haven’t fucked YET,’” Dick continued. “I take it you expect that it is only a matter of time.”

“I know what you want,” Julie replied, “and I know that you have the power to get it one way or another.”

“If you mean to suggest that I will force myself upon you, I assure you that I will not. I love you. I don’t want to hurt you.”

“You don’t have to. I want it just as much as you do. But who will blame me when you are powerful enough to transport me light-years from my old home? You saved my life. How can I ever repay you?”

“Don’t worry about that. You are drenched in sweat. Is something wrong?”

"I'm still hot," Julie said, as she sweated profusely. "It must be at least 100 degrees [Fahrenheit]."

"It's probably because the atmosphere is thicker than you are used to," Dick replied. "I'll take you up into the mountains later, but I am tired from having brought you here. Maybe a few licks will help cool you off."

"Are a few licks going to turn into you eating me?"

"I thought we discussed that already. You are safe around me. Though, if you'd like me to lick your pussy, I'd be glad to do that." Julie giggles. Dick suddenly looks away from her. "Hello, Rose."

"Who is Rose?"

"She is my mate. She just landed right behind you." Julie looks behind her and sees another dragon, slightly smaller and less colorful than Dick, and lacking the facial horns.

"You are his mate? I hope you are not jealous."

"Jealous – HA! Bringing you here was my idea. I'd love to watch him fuck you. Oh, and turning your back on Dick is probably not the best idea, unless you enjoy pranks. He won't hurt you, but he might do something you weren't planning on."

"He was just talking about licking me, and given how hot I am right now, I wouldn't mind that." Dick begins to lick Julie, starting with her ass. She squats, as if anticipating his next move. He slips his tongue between her legs and into her very wet pussy. "Oh, thank you," she says. He lowers his mouth, so that she can now see his upper jaw. With his teeth retracted, his jaw resembles that of a giant turtle. "HEY, I THOUGHT YOU SAID YOU WEREN'T GOING TO EAT ME!"

"Actually, Julie, he only said he wasn't going to hurt you," Rose replied. "He did say that he could eat you without hurting you, right?" Rose giggled. Dick gently closed his lips on Julie's upper thighs, with everything above in his mouth. He exerted enough pressure to lift her gently and painlessly. In fact, as Dick continues to slide the tip of his tongue in and out of Julie's pussy, her pleasure became so intense that she nearly forgot where she was. As she looked back, she noticed that the opening to his throat was shut by a fleshy valve similar to the one found in alligators and crocodiles, which prevents them from accidentally swallowing water while diving.

"OH, GOD! THAT FEELS SO GOOD!" Julie exclaimed triumphantly as he lifted her further off the ground. Eventually, he tilted his head backwards, as if he is ready to swallow her. As he loosened his grip, she slid back into his mouth, hitting her head against his palatal valve. Her feet rested near the tip of his tongue and he closed his mouth again. She just barely fit in his mouth, but found it to be very comfortable. He curled his tongue so that he could lick her pussy again. She trembled in a confused state of simultaneous ecstasy and terror. Although she had had a lot of sex in her life, this was different. No one had ever satisfied her so much. She began to wonder how much more intense it would get if he actually swallowed her. She simply moaned, barely able to think of words.

"DICK!" Rose screams. "I DON'T THINK SHE IS READY FOR THIS!" He lowered his head again, and gently set Julie back down on the ground. Julie turned back to look at Dick, whose snout was inches away from her. He began to nuzzle her large breasts with his nostrils.

"OH, DICK!" Julie exclaims. "YOU JUST FUCKED MY BRAINS OUT! THANK YOU!"

"I aim to please," he responds. "And Rose, why the fuck did you interrupt us?"

"I thought you were going to swallow her."

"Why would I do a thing like that?"

"Well, you did it to me, when I was a human."

"YEAH, AFTER YOU BEGGED AND PLEADED FOR WEEKS! YOU LITERALLY SWAM INTO MY OPEN MOUTH! THEN, WHEN I SPIT YOU OUT, YOU CRIED AND SAID THAT IF I LOVED YOU I WOULD SWALLOW!"

Julie interrupted, "Is this for real?"

Rose replied: "Yes, and I enjoyed it a lot. We did it many times. I just worried that he was going to do it before you were ready."

"Well," Julie said. "I don't really care why you brought me here. You saved my life. And Dick, you can swallow me whenever you want. Just don't bite."

Dick responded: "You've been here less than an hour, and our mission to corrupt you is nearly complete." Julie and Rose both laughed for several minutes.

By now, all three were exhausted, and they fell asleep. Julie, curled under Dick's right arm, had the best sleep of her life. Despite nearly being eaten, she felt safer than she had in a long time. Her recurrent dream came back. She had dreamed on many occasions of being orally pleased, and then eaten alive, by a dragon that looked just exactly like Dick. Only now did she notice the uncanny resemblance between her dream and the reality right next to her. Normally, about the time Julie was swallowed, she awaked in a panic, but this time, she was not afraid. When she got into Dick's belly, he apologized for swallowing and promised to make it right. The inside of Dick's belly glowed with a comforting blue light. He then induced her to have what she could only describe as a full-body orgasm, before magically transporting her to just in front of his feet. She looked up and saw his enormous swollen penis. She awakened and felt Dick's warm embrace. "Thank you, Dick," she said, but by now he was sound asleep.
