

Friend of a god

The white dragoness was flying around looking alternatively at the ground and at the horizon, searching for something.

“Hm, I think I'm totally lost, I never visited a place like this one before, maybe it's better to go back.”

She continue flying, trying to find her way.

“Come on! I wonder how I did to be lost like that! I think the best is to find somebody and ask him where I'm.”

And after some minutes...

“At last! I can see two humans in the field below me, I was really in the middle of nowhere. Let's see if they can give me some clue about this place.”

She land no so far from them, but as soon as the humans seen her, they run away in terror, screaming something in a language she don't understand.

“No! Come back, I... Wow, I really frightened them, I never seen a human terrorized by a dragon like that. I just have to find somebody else.”

She take off and start looking for some help again, and found some other humans, eating along a road.

“Good, I hope I will have better luck with them.”

She had not landed when the humans ran away from her, leaving their food behind them.

“He, can you... Eh no! Ouch! Ow!”

Some seconds later, she was alone again.

“Gods, I didn't dream, one of them thrown me some stones... What is wrong with them? And what is that strange wagon they used? It work without any horse...”

She walk around, looking at the place... then she notice the asphalted road.

“What a weird road, all grey... it's not made with ground or graven stone, it look more like some melted stone, it's the first time I see that.

By the way, I have to look for other people, again.”

Nearly one hour later...

“Gods dammit! what the fuck is this country? The third human I met nearly hurt me with some kind of... I don't know... first stick or something like that. I will avoid them now, I hope there is some dragons here, maybe they are nicer than these humans!”

She was still flying when she notice something away.

“Oh, what is that? Look like a... moving mountain?”

She fly closer, intrigued.

“By. All. Gods. It's a dragon! A big red and black anthro one. He's so huuuuuuuge! He must be more than two kilometers tall!

I'm just a fly for him, what must I do? Ok... ok... calm down Enalys my girl, you will just politely ask him your way, and everything will be fine.”

She have to fly higher to reach his head, and after some minutes, she was near it.

I hope he will heard me, I'm so little for him Se thought nervously.

“Eeer... hm... hello mister giant... can you help me?”

She notice the iris of the huge dragon's eye moving is her direction. She wave her hand and smile, nervous.

“He... hello” she said.

Then, she heard a deep voice.

“A dragon? I never seen a dragon as small as you. What do you want little one?

– Sorry to disturb you sir, I came from a place called Atsami, and I don't know how I'm arrived here. I'm totally lost. Do you know a safe place where I can stay.

– I'm sorry, I don't know the place you are talking about, so I can't help you. But if you want a safe place for a dragon, you can stay with me.

– Oh, thank you sir, by the way, my name is Enalys.

– Mine is Daeron, you are the first dragon I met for a long time.”

Enalys land off on Daeron's right shoulder.

“Really? Dragons are rare here?

– Now yes, it wasn't like that in the past, but they evolved to survive.

– To survive? From?

– From humans.

– Oh! I met some humans before you, they were weird, mostly aggressive with me.

– They wasn't like that in the past, but they changed along century...

– Changed? Oh! I hope you're not annoyed with all my questions.

– It's fine little one, don't worry. Long time ago dragons and humans were living in peace, but, for an inexplicable reasons, humans became jealous of us, they begin to chase us and kill us. Now, they hate us, they even hate each other.

– ... Wow! This explain lot of things, like why dragons are so big here, to survive better I suppose.

– Yes, dragons from here are taller than you, but not as big as me.

– Where I came from, humans and dragons live together, lot of dragons have a human companion.

– Hm... do you have one?

– Yes, he take good care of me, and I too, I love him and I don't want to lose him.”

Daeron stay quiet some seconds.

“I see, your world is really different from this one.

– Of course, our humans aren't perfect, we aren't too, but it seem that we find a sort of balance to use the best of our two race.

– Lucky little Enalys. Here, humans are arrogant, cupid and corrupted. They don't respect dragons, they don't respect nature, and they don't respect themselves. They are now just a living plague destroying all what they touch! And as a dragon god it's my work to give them a lesson they will remember for long!

– I hope they will under... Wait! What? You are a god!?

– Yes, I'm.

– I... sorry... my lord, I don't know that... I hope I didn't insulted you.

– Ah! Ah! No, it's fine, you are a nice fellow.

– Thank, I must admit I feel better since I'm with you.

– This world is rude for dragons, and... It looks like you you don't like being alone.

– You are right, I really don't like that, I was alone for long before I met my human.

– I see, by the way, if you don't want to be alone anymore here I know a red and black dragon... he says with a smile.

– Ooooh, Daeron, I'm sorry but you are a little too tall for me, plus you are a god, I'm just a little dragoness. Oh! What is that? What is this big grey thing in front of us?

– It's a human city.

– Really? It's ugly and sad... what are these big blocks? Some buildings?

– Yes, they call this skyscraper.

– I see, the name and their shape look arrogant. But from here, all seem so small.

– They are, like their creators.

– Gods, I think I understood what do you plan to punish them...

– They deserve it, you can trust me.

– Different worlds, different rules.”

Few steps later Daeron reached the city and begin his punishment.

The huge red and black dragon rose one paw and smash it violently on the buildings below him. Under the blow he earth quaked and nearby constructions crumbled.

Enalys hide her eyes with her hands, but, she can't resist to see what's happened, she take a look between her fingers, and when the cloud of dust cleared, she seen the massive destruction.

In the city, the remaining humans were in great panic, screaming in terror, trying to flee the wrath of the godly dragon by any possible means.

“Look at theses bugs little one, trying to save there puny life.”

She can see humans crowd running in the street, some other was trying to escape by using these strange wagon she see before, without taking care of other people, inevitably creating accidents. Besides the earthquake and destruction created by Daeron, fire was spreading, caused by the destruction of electrical and gas lines, making the humans even more terrorized.

She was trembling but couldn't stop looking, fascinated by the power of Daeron. And it was only his first step.

“That's it, flee you little cowards, that's what you are the best for.” he shoot.

And the gigantic dragon continue his walk...

“Ah! The feeling of humans body under my paws, I missed that so much!”

Some seconds later, Daeron was hit by missiles, some hitting his head, forcing the dragoness to avoid the nearby explosions, and some hitting his body, but it was even less than mosquito bites for the god, nothing that could break his scales.

“Oh, you try to resist, that's so cute...”

He spit some fire and destroyed four of the six planes who attacked them. They exploded and melted in no time due to the extremely high temperature of his holy fire breath, forcing the two remaining to retreat.

Then he continue, leaving only a path of death and destruction behind him.

By looking downward, Enalys notice Daeron's growing dick, he seem he was aroused by all the destruction he made. She couldn't detach her sight from the god's member and was looking at it with round eyes, foaming at the mouth.

He notice her and ask :

“Enjoying the view little Enalys?”

She look at him and nodded.

“I never seen such a monster! You really are a god! I have no doubt about it now. She answered excited.

– Care to join the show, and honor a god?

– Yes! But how? I'm so small, these humans could kill me.

– Nothing that I can't fix. Let me help you to evolve sweetie...”

He touched her with a finger, and she start growing, Enalys couldn't really notice at the beginning, but she soon can't ignore it.

“Oh my... I'm growing! I think I better leave your shoulder before I'm too big for it.”

In the city, the terror of the humans increased when they seen a second dragon, becoming bigger and bigger.

When her grow surge stopped, she was nearly 2 kilometer tall, only two heads smaller than Daeron.

She landed in the city –smashing some building, humans and other things in the process– and roared, the nearby peoples and cars were blown and building shake due to the shock wave.

She turned her head back to Daeron and seen him and his hard shaft ready for her.

“Your god awaits you my dear.

– Don't worry my lord, I'm not forgetting you.”

She rose on her back paws to reach his member and smell it, the musk of the holy dragon was strong and pleasant. She start licking it with her long tongue, then, put it in her mouth and suck it gently, enjoying every moment.

“Mmmm, continue like that...”

So she did, she felt Daeron's cock growing and becoming harder, in answer, she licked harder and deeper, massing it with her tongue, making the god moaned in pleasure.

At the same time, Enalys felt her body changing again, she wasn't growing, but her scales became thicker and her claws sharper than ever.

After some minutes, Daeron take her head in his hands and push it faster and faster, Enalys was surprised at the beginning but soon enjoyed it, feeling the god's hard member going all the way in her mouth.

“Take it all sweetie!”

Then, she felt Daeron cock throbbing, she understood that he will cum soon, so she massing him harder with her tongue and pushed his dick all the way.

And Daeron ejaculated, sending waves of hot cum in the dragoness throat. She tried to shallow it, but he came so much that she can't, the rest was flowing out his mouth and splattered on the ground between them, melting everything it touched like hot lava.

“That was so good, you serve your god well Enalys.

– Thank you my sweet lord.

– Ready for the main course?”

She goes on all fours, crushing a new part of the city and killing more humans.

“Mmmm, killing the pity humans from this world is as enjoyable as having a human companion in my world.” she said discovering her new powers.

Daeron stroke Enalys thin leaking vagina with his hard cock, and push it, slowly to don't hurt her.

“Oooh, you are tight dear.

– Mmmm, or your godly dick is too thick for me...”

He pushed more, than, started coming and going. He stooped and lick Enalys neck while fucking her.

“Now, let's destroy this ugly city with our lust.

– Yes my god. These humans will pay for what they did to our race.”

While they were enjoying each other, Enalys body evolving again and she soon felt hungry.

“What's happens to me? It's like I haven't ate for weeks.” she thought

Then, her stomach growling...

“Hungry sweetie? Don't worry, we have plenty of food here.”

She can't take anymore, she notice a round shaped building not so far, she dug her claws into the ground, snatched the construction and begin eat it like a cake.

Some humans thought the covered stadium was a safe place to hide from the monsters, but they felt a major shake and seconds later, a gigantic jaw devoured a part of the stadium, they tried to flee but there were no escape, and bite after bite their were all soon gulped.

“This is it love, show to these miserable creatures who rule this land.”

Enalys loved the sensation in her mouth, the little humans tried to resist, but it was no use. Her sharp teeth and her powerful tongue crushed them and their weak building like nothing, and her strong saliva begin to dissolve them. The few survivor of this treatment will soon meet her stomach.

She continue eating while Daeron fucked her, enjoying her meal and her godly mate.

The dragon moved and lay down on his left side, taking Enalys with him.

This movement crushed a new part of the city and more human under their massive body, but, this position give them more pleasure too.

Totally absorbed by his sexual desire, he moved his hip faster, making the ground shade faster and harder, the dragoness moaned loudly in pleasure and her wet vagina was soon amply leaking.

“Ah! Daeron! Aaah! I will... cum.

– Don't hold it love...”

Her pussy erupted like a geyser, spreading her fluid in a deadly stream. If Daeron's seed was like hot lava for the humans, Enalys pussy fluid was now like a strong acid for them, and what was not been destroyed by the high pressure of her fluid stream was soon dissolved.

She felt stronger than ever, like if all parts of her body was a threat for the pitiful humans from this word.

“Oooh, Enalys, how does it feel the be a goddess?

– It's so good... AH! Like if nothing... Mmmmmm... nothing can stop me now. Ah! I want to know it forever! Ooooh!

– You love?

– Yes... I love it! Mmmm I love...

– Say it sweetie.

– I love you Daeron! Mmmmmm... Ah! I love you!”

They kissed with passion.

Daeron's cock growing again as he was reaching climax.

“Cum in me big boy! Cum!”

Daeron moaned as he felt his dick throbbing hard, then he roared mightily when he orgasmed.

His hard cock erupted like a volcano, filling up Enalys womb with thousands and thousands of liters of his warm potent godly seed.

“Ooooooh it's so good and hot love!”

Daeron's semen was so hot and musky that she orgasm again, roaring in pleasure with him.

When they came back to reality, they looked around.

The former human city was now a ruin field dotted with giants craters, the few surviving humans were trying to hide the best they could, shaking in terror.

“What a mess! I'm glad I met you Enalys, it was way more fun with you. And with two godly dragons, these humans will remember to respected and worship ours for a long time.

– Two dragons? Are you really sure my love?” She says with a smile, showing him her cum leaking pussy.
