

The dragons return

The evolution of Humanity wasn't quite good to be honest, after "conquering" the planet and use it to serve their whim, they forgot a lot in the process, only caring of their individual and greedy interest, forgetting their own history, inventions, cultures, religions and songs, and most important, their real Gods.

Sleeping deep under the surface of the planet, the Gods, in the form of a black dragon and a white dragoness were gathering their force, eyeing at the humans.

Slowly but surely, the actions of the mortals irritate the Deities, awaking them, causing more and more earthquakes, until their inevitable awakening, soon ready to emerge from the ground to punish them for their insolence.

The dragoness was sleeping in her underground lair, like her husband, she lost some of her power, but she will soon regain it.

After a too long sleep, she finally awake, the human build a large town in above her lair, totally unaware of her presence, but she didn't care, it will be her play field.

The first contact the humans had with her was when a large hand shatter the ground of their city, causing shock and fear.

After some effort, she rise from the ground, leaving a large crater and a cloud of dust behind her.

After some footsteps the humans, could admit her perfect 546 meters body, covered with white scales.

She walk across the city, terrorising the humans, crushing cars under her paws, destroying and burning buildings along her way with her tail and divine fire. The mortals run away, jumping in their cars, trying to escape her, but soon, a second massive earthquake shake the town, making more building to crumble, then, a large black dragon emerge from the ruin, towering at 718 meters. The dragoness noticing him, immediately recognizing her loving husband. She run to him, too happy to see him, causing havoc in her way, then, rub her head against his, gently growling to welcome him.

The screams and terror of the tiny humans doubled as they now have to deal with two godly dragons.

The male groan in answer to the female, rubbing his body against her own and licking her face.

The two dragons were soon walking in the city, their tail twisted together, licking their snout and mouth, like if they was kissing each other, not taking a shit about the many humans they crushed while their loving walk.

As there kisses and walk goes, the Deities soon feel aroused by each other, it was in fact quite normal after being separate from each other for thousand years. Soon, the member of the black male slide of it slit, hardening and growing, while the wet vagina of the white female start spreading it lovely smelly musk.

The male growl at the smell, knowing now that his wife want the same than him, he lick her neck slowly and lovingly, his long wet tongue gently licking her white scales.

The two dragons continue their foreplay, not taking care at the mortals running around, the cock of the dragon God was soon fully erected, showing it impressive size and large ridges, some of his musky precum leaking from it tip.

When this smelly hit her nostrils, the white dragoness can't resist and groan of pleasure, passing her head under her husband body and start lick his large ridged shaft with her long forked tongue.

As the pleasure run through their bodies, the two godly dragons start growing, to the horror of the mortals.

There body slowly enlarge as they continue pleasing themselves, the male growl of pleasure as the female was twisting her tongue along his member before slowly sliding it inside her mouth and sucking gently. She keep sucking her husband, pushing his cock deeper until he move his hips to help her and lean over her to lick her warm wet vagina.

As the dragons were growing, their musk became stronger and stronger, slowly but surely intoxicating the mortals around them, turning them into obedient worshipper. Soon, some gather around the two deities and start praying them as they continue their mating dance.

The dragoness moan at the lick of her husband while sucking him, in the meantime, he thrust his cock deeper into her mouth and throat. He push his long forked tongue in her wet cunt, slowly lick her inner walls and sensitive spot, she answer by a long moan and push all the dragon's cock in her mouth and throat.

Soon, she was leaking so of her musky fluids on their worshipers, at least, the one her lover couldn't drink, she felt his cock leaking precum in her throat, forcing her to also have a warm drink.

He open his mouth wide and push his tongue deep inside her cunt, furiously leaking and teasing her g-spot and cervix, making them loudly groan of pleasure and leak more, as he was now violently moving his hips, she feel his cock throbbing hard. The dragoness tighten her mouth around her lover shaft and push it as deep as she can, soon after, the black God loudly moan while licking her vagina, cumming huge loads of seed in her throat and stomach.

She lick then slide his still hard cock from her mouth and he slide his tongue from her now heavily leaking vagina.

The dragons cuddle a few and look around, they were now 1092 and 1436 meters size, easily dwarfing the tallest buildings. But not contented with there first intercourse, they keep going, the beautiful dragoness lower her body, showing her leaking pussy to her lover, showing her submission to the strong black dragon God.

Aroused by the view and her strong musk, he didn't wait, and mount her, sliding his large cock inside her wet cunt, push his lard rid one after another in her tight womanhood, making her groan of pleasure each time.

They twisted there tails and he lean over her, lovingly lick her neck, then, his move his hips slowly, gently coming and going in her divine leaking cunt.

Still growing due to the pleasure, they start mating, the male come and go deeper and faster thrust after thrust. They can't stop moaning and groaning, the tight vagina or the dragoness squeezing her husband cock while it heavily rub and tease her inner wall.

As they grow, there musk became stronger, attracting more mortals around us, turning them into worshipers in no time. They crushed some as the keep mating, but they didn't care, they keep going, the black dragon fucker her white lover deeper and faster, making her moan louder and filling the region with the naughty sound of their crotch hitting each other.

The dragoness can't stop leaking her musky fluid, blessing and drowning the mortals that were stupid enough to be under them. The make then bit then neck of her lover and violently and furiously move his hips, his large veiny ridged cock heavily teasing the cunt of his mate while the tip of his cock was pushing hard against her cervix. She push a loud moan, strong enough to destroy some building and squirt a few, drenching her lover cock.

Now are the respective size of 2184 and 2872 meters, the dragoness feel her lover shaft heavily throbbing inside her, her cunt firmly tighten around his cock to give him more pleasure, the black giant keep hammering his wife senselessly, making her loudly moan and heavily leak, her fluid flooding part of the city below them. Then, he pushed his member as deep as he can, sliding his cock's tip in her womb, stretched and spreading her cunt hard before pushing a powerful roar of pleasure and victory.

The mortals can see in horror the black dragon cock twitching and pulse hard and fast as it was cumming, blasting thousands and thousands of liters of his thick hot godly seed in the divine fertile womb of the white dragoness.

Now sizing 4368 and 5744 meters, overwhelmed by pleasure, the goddess loudly roared in lust, lowering her body and digging her fangs in the ground, crushing the whole city under her and shattering the earth like if it was only some carpet, then, her body shook before she orgasmed, squirting massive loads of her warm smelly fluid on the ground, her fluid burning and dissolving everything it touched like a strong acid.

The male kept his hard ridged cock deep inside the female, pumping more and more seed, bulging his wife underbelly, until it pumped his last drips of seed, ensuring impregnation, then, he slowly slid his member from his lover's cunt and lay near her, gently licking the head of the softly groaning dragoness. Some of his lava hot seed leaked from the goddess cunt, melting and burning the last mortals that managed to escape being crushed by their divine bodies or her lover's fluid.

New life was forming inside the dragoness womb, creating a new generation of gods to rule the planet when they will become too large to live on it, a thing that will happen soon at the rate they were growing.

Highly intoxicated by the strong smell of their musk, the surviving mortals of the region were gathering around them, praying and making offerings to their new dragons/Gods, admiring the belly of the divine dragoness becoming bigger and bigger hours after hours as her children were quickly growing inside her.
