

Horus & Nekhbet

The Gods Rise Again

Long forgotten by the mortals, the Deities of ancient Egypt were just the subject of jokes or curiosity for them now, but, deep in the underground of their abandoned temple, they were gathering their powers, ready to emerge from the ground to claim their land back.

In the middle of the South of Egypt, the ground soon shake, then, the sand soon move, before a large form rise from it, after centuries, Horus, former protector of the Pharaohs and God of Skies was awake, ready to claim Egypt back to those silly monotheist with his power and 1600 meter size.

He look around, noticing the ruins of the abandoned town of his former civilization, then, feeling source of life, he start walking to the nearby town, reaching it soon with his giant steps. Some second after, the scream of terror of the tinies reach him, making him smile. He look down at the city, his arms crossed, at his size, it was dwarfing the buildings. Some tinies were running in terror, trying to shelter in some building of to leave the town in their car, some were looking at him, taking pictures with their smartphone.

“ I see that none of you remember and worship me anymore. ” He said looking at the little mortals. He slowly spread his wings, plunging the town into the dark, making the mortals even more scared.

“ I'm there to take back my land from your false deity, now knee in front of me, your true God, Horus! ” he added, rising his foot and slowly crushing a building, feeling it cracking and crumbling under his divine sole while the tinies keep trying to flee in terror.

The building finally collapse under the pressure of his foot, he feel a sensation of power while the remain of the building were crushed under his sole, something he didn't feel for a long time. The Falcon headed God look at the tiny mortals, some trying for pray their god or to implore the old Deity to spare them.

“ You pray are not heartfelt enough, worship me better. ” He said rising his second foot and slowly lowering it over some mortals.

He soon notice something strange, like if someone was looking at him on him back. He urn around and noticed a second giant, making him smiling warmly.

“ Lady Nekhbet! I wasn't expecting your visit! ” He said walking to the Goddess that was towering just a under him with 1500 meters

He take her hand and kiss it, offering her the attention she was deserving.

“ My dear, your visit is such a surprise, I didn't know I wasn't the only one spending time gathering my force during the thousands years of sleep. ”

The Goddess smile to him “ You are welcome Lord Horus, but it seem you weren't the only one, I don't know if the other members of our pantheon take the same decision, but when I feel your power rising again some hour ago, I known that it was time for me to rise up too. ”

“ It will be a pleasure to reclaim our kingdom at your side Lady Nekhbet, these little mortals were already scared to death with only me, but with both of us, it will be even easier and merrier. ”

The two deities came back to the nearby town, noting it was almost empty.

“ Almost all the mortals leave the town while our little discussion, it was expected they will take that opportunity, but it's not a big problem, we walk faster than them, they just delay their doom.

– Indeed, we should leave this little town alone, we have bigger places to visit, were we will find more tinies to convert to our cult.

– For what I see, the ones on this town aren't from the religion that replaced our own...

– Mmmm, tell my Lord Horus, if I remember well, the rising religion when fall into sleep were the Christian, most of our follower were forced to convert, well, if there still is some of these Christian in Egypt, they should be the direct descendant of our former worshipers...

– I see... in that case, they should still be sensible to our power and easier to convert.

– Indeed, it will permit us to have a base of worshipers easily. ”

They leave the place, not without crushing some buildings under their feet and walk to the nearest town, following the roads, until they notice some people and vehicle near a temple at the base of a mountain.

“ That's strange, there is people at the Hatshepsut's mausoleum...

– I don't think they are thief, there are too much, and thief don't act in the middle of the day.

– But I don't think they are there to honor her memory either. It's not what we call... tourist? on these modern days?

– I think you are right, they don't have anything to do in this place. ”

Horus, followed by Nekhbet, walk to the mausoleum, the tourists feel the ground shacking as the deities were coming closer and soon notice the two giants coming to them. They run in every direction in panic, some trying to hide into the mausoleum.

Horus goes on all fours and look through the mausoleum entrance, the mortals hiding inside could see his giant eye through the door.

“ I can see you little ones, I'm coming for you.

– Wait Horus! I have a better idea. ”

He look at the Vulture Goddess while she was casting a spell.

Soon, the mortals hided in the mausoleum leave it in terror shouting unintelligible things, permitting Horus to catch some, then, the building shack and crumble before a 300 meters resurrected Hatshepsut rise from it ruins.

“ I was thinking that if these tinies were so curious about our dear queen they would be happy to see her for real. ” Said Nekhbet

“ That's smart of you my dear. ” Answered Horus, offering some mortals to the Goddess.

She grab some and ate them, soon followed by her friend, punishing them for profaning this sacred place.

Noticing the Gods, the Queen knee in front of them, thanking them to taking her back to life.

“ Lord Horus, Lady Nekhbet, I, Hatshepsut, thank you to take me back from the Land of the Dead, and will do everything I can to serve you the best I can. ”

They look at the queen with a smile.

“ We are glad to see you again Hatshepsut, we know you will serve us well, like you did during your first life, we are in the process of rebuilding our real and expend it, we will need people we can trust, like you, to rule over the mortals, so, you are now in charge of the one of this continent.

– Yes, for now, we just wake up, so, the land you are now in charge will expend as we convert new mortals.

– Yes my Lords, I will serve you wisely and guide the mortals to rebuild our civilization as you order me. ”

Nekhbet smile to the queen thank her, then, they leave her, continuing their little walk.

“ I don't remember that Hatshepsut was so beautiful. ” Said Horus

“ Yes, I adapted her beauty to actual standard, it will help converting mortals.

– That what I was thinking... ”

They keep walking, following the Nile, destroying every towns in there path and crushing every mortals that try to resist to their powers or refuse to worship them, leaving only a path of death and destruction in their way, the only surviving mortals were the few ones who accept to worship their news Gods and were doing it good enough.

After some time, even if it was just a little stroll due to their size, they reach the capital of Cairo, the large city was already in a state of chaos when they arrive, the mortals could see the march of the two titans on TV or internet and were desperately try to leave the place, creating massive traffic, accidents and large gathering of people. The scream of tiny mortals, mixed with the sound of the klaxons and emergency sirens make the two Gods smile, the simple view of their divine bodies was enough to create havoc. They look at the destruction and panic, until a sound in all that mess caught there attention.

“ Did you heard that Nekhbet, it isn't this the sound of some... bells?

– Yes, if I remember it's what's these Christian use in there church, there must be one there, let's find it and we will see if our powers still affect them. ”

They start walking across the metropolis, following the sound of the bells, stomping and crushing without any care tiny mortals in their way under their divine soles, until they reach a little church in a poor part of the town, there were quite some people there, as they have maybe have nowhere to go, even if they try to flee when the deities approach.

Horus place one of his foot next to entrance of the church and lean over before snatching it roof, inside only few people were there, trying to pray there gods to escape the two Deities, at the sight of the Falcon one, they scream in terror and try to leave the place by the same he blocked with his foot.

“ Oh hello there, I just need your help to test something. ” He said while grabbing a tiny with his hand.

He look at the little mortal that was trying to escape his hand, even he was hundreds of meter above the ground now.

“ I didn't know I was so scary, oh well. ”

He cast a conversion spell, it could be more or less effective depending of psychological state of the mortal, but the fact that these Christians were the most direct descendants of their former worshipers can increase it efficiency. The mortal grab his head and scream in pain and terror, feeling his mind being manipulated by the spell, but, after maybe a minute, he calm down then look at the deity before kneeling.

“ Lord Horus, order me and I will obey.

– Well, that's better. ”

Then, speaking to Nekhbet:

“ It worked, look how obedient he is now.

– Good, that will help us, it seem we can wake up the love for us they inherited from their ancestors.

– Indeed, these little ones will for for us while we converting the other ones the hard way. ” Added Horus before putting the tiny mortal on the ground.

Then, the two titans used the same spell to a larger scale, converting all what they can in the area.

“ Good, it should give us little base of worshipers, now we have to take care of this ugly town.

– Indeed, these modern building are really awful, this place need some urban renovation. ”

The two Gods then start destroying the city, crushing and stomping building, snatching and hitting skyscraper without any care for the mortals around, laughing at their destruction and at the tinies trying to flee from the falling debris and their large foot. They continue their game until the metropolis was just a field of ruins, lettered with debris of buildings, crushed cars and people. The last survivors hiding in terror.

“ Well, that was some great fun, Now, this ugly place will be reconstruct way better by our worshipers.

– Indeed, mmm, I can feel their pray, faithful little mortals.

– Yes, their prays are a little clumsy, but quite heartfelt, they seem to understood why we destroyed this place.

– As they give us some love, maybe we should give them some? ” Asked Nekhbet

Horus take the Goddess in his hands from her back and gently caress her curvy side and kiss her neck while his cock was growing and hardening.

“ Mmm, I feel that some Goddess also need some love.

– Lord Horus, you are terrible... well, to be honest, I could enjoy some care and relaxation in your hands after all that fun.

– I know, I can clearly feel it dear. ” He answered while slowly rubbing the Goddess womanhood through her clothes feeling how warm he was.

“ Mmmm, you naughty boy... ” she added slightly blushing at the God moves.

She then remove her dress, revealing her body to the Falcon God and the still living mortals.

“ A perfect divine beauty indeed.

– Yes my dear Horus, but stop complimenting me and show me how you take care of a Goddess.

– You can count on me. ”

He keep kissing her neck and gently teasing her warm pussy's lips with an hand while the one was caressing her body, then, he push a finger in her cunt and gently rub her inner walls.

“ Mmmm, so warm and soft. ”

The Vulture deity softly coo and groan, then, her friend push a second finger in her private part and start slowly coming and going, soon feeling her warm and smelly pussy fluid leak on his fingers.

“ Yes... oooh... it was so long since someone take care of me like that. ”

Horus keep fingering her, going slightly deeper and rubbing her inner walls a little harder each time, licking and kissing her neck while gently squeezing one of her breasts with his second hand, making his cock growing and hardening more, lifting his loin clothe.

Nekhet's warm and musky fluid leak on her legs, it strong smell spread across the ruins and soon attracted some mortals near her feet, they knee and began worshipping the Godly couple.

As Horus cock was now fully harden, she can feel it on her back, arousing her more, making her moan of pleasure and leak more juice.

He continue to tease her more, squeezing her soft beautiful breast more and rubbing and pinching her nipple while fingering her faster and deeper, making her moan more. As his arousal also grow, his large shaft throb and spread some of his strong musk.

“ Mmmmmf! Horus! wait! ”

She pull his finger out of her warm leaking cunt and lay on her back, crushing some blocks below her, then, invite her Godly mate to join her. He remove his loin clothes, revealing his large throbbing shaft to everyone and goes on all fours, placing his hard throbbing cock near her head and his head near her leaking cunt.

She take his hard shaft and slowly stroke it, a drop of heavily musk precum leak from it, while he spread her cunt with two fingers and lick it.

The strong mixed smells of their fluid and precum attracted more mortals around them, then, Horus open his beak and slide his tongue in the Goddess warm and wet pussy and start lick her insides while Nekhet open her own and lick his large and veiny member.

She gently push his cock in her beck and start slowly sucking it, licking it and moaning of pleasure while he slide his tongue deeper in her cunt, licking her inner walls deeper and deeper, making the Vulture deity lick more.

The view of the two perfect creatures having fun and their strong musk attracted more mortals, they gather near Nekhbet crotch and head and begin worshipping her, enjoying the view even with all the dangers it could represent.

They keep going, Nekhbet pushing Horus cock further in her mouth, feeling it teasing her throat, and start massaging his large and heavy balls while he slide his tongue in the depth of her cunt, making her moan and leak more fluid as he lick her g-spot.

She open her beck wide and push his cock deeper, choking a few at how large it was. The God moan of pleasure at her deep suck and her hand squeezing his balls, but he soon continue licking her deeper and harder, his tongue quickly lick her g-spot and the entrance of her womb. She push a loud moan and squirt when she feel his tongue teasing her cervix, giving a warm drink to her lover and splashing some of the mortals below them, heavily burning the ones splashed by her fluid. Horus move his hips, sliding his shaft deeper in Nekhbet mouth and throat, groan and moaning of pleasure, soon feeling his cock throbbing.

As Horus keep licking her cunt deep and hard, she Vulture Goddess soon orgasmed, massively squirting, her lover open his beak wide to drink as much as possible, but, he soon remove his head as he feel his own orgasm coming, leaving Nekhbet violently squirting on the mortals while moaning in lust, washing away anything against her legs with massive squirts of her fluid, burning and dissolving almost all mortals that were worshipping her, her juice acting like a strong acid for them. The Falcon God soon followed her mate, he push his throbbing cock as deep as he can and cummed, his shaft massively twitching and pulsing, pumping large rope of seed deep in her mouth and throat, then, he go on his knees, pulling it dick out of Nekhbet beak and stroke his member, loudly moaning, spurting huge loads of his hot and thick cum on the ground, melting the imprudent mortals.

They pant a few once their orgasm fade and look around, the former Metropolis was now just a ruins with only few survivors still alive hiding in the debris of the destroyed buildings, the large ponds of there cum and fluid were pouring on the Nil, bringing there strong musk to the town downstream, permitting them to convert new mortals without efforts.

“ Mmm, that was so much fun.

– Indeed, last time I was treated like that was thousands years ago if I remember.

– I also missed that, well, look like we convert this place my dear Goddess, and the Nil bringing our musk fluids will convert even more tinies.

– Yes, these mortals really can't do nothing against us, speaking of tinies... it look like we grew bigger.

– Now you say it... yes, I think we are twice our previous size. I don't think we have enough worshipers to grow only with their pray, maybe it's due to the fun we had.

– Yes, I think it is. ” They get up and put back their clothes before kissing.

“ Mmm, what should be our next place to visit my dear Horus now Egypt is ours?

– I think I have an idea in mind, it's a surprise.

– Oh really ? Tss, you are such a teaser. ”

The God laugh at her words and take her hand before they leave the ruins.
