

The People of the Desert

The almost total obliteration of Jerusalem was a quite great chock for the humans, seeing the two deities transforming the millennial city in a pile of nothing just for some fun was something. Like the previous one, some people were able to film the scene and the pictures of the two Gods were on almost all TV around the world. The mortals were trying to guess where they will go next time and evacuate the mains town as quickly as possible, but at the speed the two titans were walking, it was not us, and, as they look to be attracted by the holy cities of the different religions, they were almost sure Mecca will be their next stop.

Horus and Nekhbet head South after leaving Jerusalem, holding there hands, like two lovers making a casual walk, the falcon God noticed the his friend was showing it first signs of pregnancy, a new lineage of Gods was on the way, and it was coming quickly.

They flatted the Sinai Mouth in there way, and soon felt the warmer temperatures the area, remembering them the ones in Egypt as they keep walking heading to South, following the shore, crushing town and villages without any care, only feeling the corpses of the tiny mortal under their mighty feet.

The people of Mecca could see the two Titans approaching in the distance, the earthquake they were causing becoming stronger and stronger at each of their steps. The people of the metropolis were, like other one before them, trying to flee. Running with what they can bring with them or stuck in the massive traffic jam caused by the evacuation order, they now have to deal with the earthquakes caused by the two giants.

They soon reach the metropolis, feeling the centuries of prays that were buried under, like the ones before, they visited it, crushing building and people without any care for what was “ sinners ” for them, even if at the view of the two deities and at the strong musk they were spreading, some converted themselves in not time, kneeing and start worshipping them in a clumsy way, desperately trying to save their lives.

Some steps after, they reach the holy center of the place a,d start absorbing the prays that were waiting in it ground, fueling their powers and making them slowly growing bigger, after all, these prays were just waiting for their real Gods. Looking down at the tinies, some were running between their toes, some praying in a large open structure with a black cube at it center, then pitiful mortals were desperately trying to asking their “ god ” to save them, but it will be useless, their only salute would be to embrace their new and only Deities that was actually towering above us, growing bigger and bigger seconds after seconds, their growing body causing more and more destruction.

The smile to each others, knowing what will be the next part of their fun.

They removed their clothes, then, Nekhbet get on all four, plunging the tinies above in her shadow but offering them a perfect view to her divine body, then, Horus goes behind her and start slowly stroking his hardening and growing penis, the mortals could see the scene in a mix of horror and arousal, their city will soon know the same fate as Rome and Jerusalem, but the view offered by the two Deities couldn't leave any mortal indifferent.

After some stroke, Horus tease the Vulture headed Goddess by rubbing his hard member on her butt crack and lean over her to lick her neck, she softly moan in answer, then, he slowly slide it in her butt hole, spreading and stretching it, the pleasure run through their body and made them moan, Nekhbet's womanhood soon getting warmer and warmer.

He push some more, stretching her butt hole further, then, once deep enough, he start moving his hips, making his hard venous shaft coming and going slowly but deeply.

Under them, the crow of mortals look at the two growing titans starting making out with horror, as they keep fucking, their moan soon echoed in the city while Nekhbet's was aroused enough that her pussy was now leaking her warm and musky fluid, one, then two, drip of her smelly godly liquid leak on her legs, and it was just the beginning.

Horus slowly rise his pace, making sure his partner have the time to accustom to the size of his cock. He keep keep licking and kissing his lover, teasing her while slowly fucking her ass, then, she grab her waist and move harder, sliding his member further in her and arousing her more.

Moaning louder, the Goddess leak some more of his fluid on the mortal, soon, a thin rain of godly pussy fluid was falling on them. The strong musk of her fluid affecting them in no time, the mortals with the weaker faith in their false god was soon converted by the strong musk were the other were trying to resist or ignore it, worshipping their false deity with more fervor.

Feeling the prays of their new worshiper and listening to the scream of terror of the ones who were resisting to their mighty powers, the two lover continue their game, the Falcon God grab one of Nekhbet's breast with an hand and knead it, gently pinching and pulling her nipple while rubbing her warm clit with his other hand and fucking her deeper and harder, she push a long and loud moan of pleasure, it melodious sound aroused the God some more, making his balls and shaft swelling and growing.

The strong musk of Nekhbet's was flowing in the town, gathering more and more freshly converted mortals around them, they knee and start worshipping them, licking there feet, exposing their lives to their growing body.

As the Vulture Goddess was leaking more and more, aroused by the deeper and harder trust of her lover, the rain of her warm cunt fluid was getting stronger, making easier to convert the mortal, some of then start drinking it, converting then instantaneously. The Sky God keep going, moving his hips harder, making Nekhbet's breasts bouncing, the naughty sound of his crotch hitting his friend butt was now filling the place with their moans. Keeping teasing the Goddess with his hand in top of fucking her delicious tight godly asshole, she soon start squirting of pleasure, her legs and arms shacking as she feel her orgasm coming.

Pushing harder and deeper, Nekhbet's breasts were bouncing harder, Horus pull some more on her nipples while rubbing her clit faster, feeling his lover fluid drenching his finger as she kept squirting, her fluid leaking in the sewer of the town, spreading her strong musk all around the place. The tinies under them when almost all converted, worshipping them faithfully, the few ones who were resisted were screaming of terror, holding their heads, their eyes wide open, desperately trying to resist, but as the Goddess fluid was becoming stronger and stronger, the godly fluid that was raining on the few remaining sinners soon burn their skins.

Horus and Nekhbet exchanged a deep and passionate kiss, their tongue wresting with each other while he keep fucking her harder and harder, his large balls slapping her cunt each time, splashing her warm fluid around, then, his cock widely throb and his body shacking of pleasure, he violently push his hard member deep in Nekhbet's butt hole, she push a loud moan of lust, then, Horus orgasmed, his cock violently twitching and pulsing, gushing massive load of his godly cum in Nekhbet's butt. Lowering her body, her arms and legs already shacking, the Goddess was soon overwhelmed but pleasure and orgasmed soon after her lover, while his thick hot semen was filling her ass, she violently squirt, her cunt spraying huge load of her divine musky fluid on the mortals under them. Soaked by the hundred of liters of her now highly acidic divine cunt fluid, the mortals were soon consumed by it, leaving soon only hundred of skeletons in what was the holy place of their foolish religion.

Moaning loudly of lust, causing tempests, Nekhbet's soon couldn't take anymore and her trembling legs and arms wasn't able to support her longer. Her body fall on the ground, crushing everything under her, large parts of the metropolis and hundreds of thousands of mortals were reduced to nothing by the body of the Goddess that was lost in her lust.

Some after, Horus slide his cock out of his lover butt, letting his thick hot cum licking from it and help her sating, gently taking her in his hands, cuddling with her, caressing her perfect body, softly panting with her after all that fun.

They look around and smile, the world was even smaller for then, and the metropolis of Mecca was almost reduced to nothing, they could feel some mortals, now worshiping them, around, but most of them perished while they were making out. Now 31,944 and 34,074 meters tall, they get and dress up, without a single word, they obliterated a city of millions, leaving only ruins and death behind them.
