

Two Howls

Two Howls

First and foremost I want to thank Darius for his patience and understanding because of how long it took to get this done.

This comic took 3 years (started Sep 2009) not because it was an exhaustive project, nor because I was trying to make a masterpiece. Not at all. It took a long time because it wasn't strictly a commission, more like a side project on the back burner.

Not because I did not care, but most of the time I wasn't content with my own artwork. Before getting a page done I did a lot of trial and error, experimenting as it went on. This is why the style evolves as the comic progresses."

As time went on I had to put other stuff first (mostly my web comic "Alpha Luna"), and a few times I quit working on art for months due to personal issues.

In the end, it may not be exactly what I had in mind, but I hope you enjoy what it has become. Also, I want to thank every fan and reader who asked for it, who motivated me to keep up, and finally finish it

Leo.
